

FRIGHTWORKS

Two times the fright! Just one place! Knoxville's only in town, indoor, factory of fear!

Reaver Sleep Research Labs has been abandoned. After the loss of Dr. Reaver, and the sanity of so many dream study test subjects, authorities stepped in and shut down the facility. Dormant for almost a year now, a local paranormal investigation team has come forward to determine exactly what dark forces inhabit the labs. Who is this Sandman entity that so many patients and staff rant about? Why does he haunt our nightmares? Can he be stopped? Join the investigation and face your nightmares at Dream Reavers!

An archeological team is digging on the premises of FrightWorks. Once thought to be only a myth, the team believes it has determined the hidden location of a labyrinth created by the most devious of entities, Loki. According to legend, Loki created this maze to protect the most valuable treasures of the ancients. Guarded by horrible creatures and sinister traps, no one could make it through alive. Join the dig and perhaps you will be the one to discover what lies within Loki's Labyrinth.
